Residence this week

Sunday 17 & Friday 22 May – The Very Revd Nicholas Papadopoulos
Monday 18–Thursday 21 May & Saturday 23 May – The Revd Jules Barnes, Vicar of the Close

Intercessions

The Sick: Thalia Eyers, Laurie, Rachel Halliday, Amelia McGlinchey

Recently Departed: Sir Hayden Phillips, Andrea Isbister, John Tarrant, The Very Reverend K Paul Mellor, Edward Hepper.

Year's Mind: Elisabeth Andree Dimont (2016), Laurence Peterken (2024), John Cavell (2017), Katie Johnstone (2018).

May Prisoner of Conscience: Mohamed Tadjadit, known as the poet of the Hirak movement, has been arbitrarily detained since January 2025 solely for exercising his rights to freedom of expression and peaceful assembly. He is awaiting trial together with 12 other activists on state security charges punishable by long prison terms and the death penalty, solely for peacefully advocating for political change. Their trial is scheduled on 30 April 2026. He is already serving a two-year prison sentence following his conviction on unfounded terrorism-related charges, upheld on appeal in January 2026. Algerian authorities must immediately and unconditionally release him and drop all charges as they solely stem from the exercise of his human rights.

Cathedral Notices

Secret Gardens of the Close The Friends of Salisbury Cathedral are hosting the Secret Gardens of the Close on Sunday 24 May 13.00 until 17.00. Tickets are £15 and can be purchased on the day, at the Choristers Green. Earlybird discounts are available for Friends members.

Joyful Noise This year's Cathedral theme of 'Joyful Noise' is being explored through art, music, talks and film, including these complementary talks about the theology of sound and silence. £10 each (£15 for both). Details and booking via Cathedral website.

- Our Sound is our Wound: Contemplative Listening to a Noisy World – Revd Lucy Winkett (contributor to BBC Radio 4 Thought for the Day) - Wednesday 3 June 7pm
- Be Still: the Practice of Silence in the Christian Tradition – Very Revd Nicholas Papadopoulos - Tuesday 16 June 7pm

Organ Recital at St Martin's, Salisbury On Wednesday 3 June at 7pm, 20-year-old Dutch organist Harald Bunt will give a recital on the 1868 Hill organ at St Martin's, Salisbury. Harald, a very promising young organist currently studying at Utrecht Conservatoire, the Netherlands, will play a varied programme of French and English Romantic works. Admission is free and all are warmly welcome.

Songs of Travel Sam Poppleton (baritone) and David Halls (piano) perform Vaughan Williams' Songs of Travel and R. Schumann's Dichterliebe on Friday 5 June, 7:30pm at St Martin's Church. Tickets £15 available on the door or reserve via email – sampoppleton@hotmail.co.uk

Joyful Noise: The Science of Song As part of our 2026 'Joyful Noise' theme, join us for an evening exploring the science of singing together. Hear Professor Ian Cross discuss his new research on community music-making, in conversation with David Halls, the Cathedral's Director of Music, and Lynsey Docherty, Artistic Director of Celebrate Voice. You will also have the opportunity to take part in an interactive singing experience, exploring rhythm and harmony. All are welcome, absolutely no experience necessary. Saturday 6 June, 7:30pm. Tickets available via <https://www.salisburycathedral.org.uk/events/the-science-of-song/>

Organ Concert On Friday 12 June, 7:30pm, David Halls will give a concert at Holy Trinity Church, Bradford on Avon, in celebration of the re-opening and centenary of the church's 1926 Henry Willis organ. Tickets are £15, available via the Church Office, on the door or email beneficeoffice@htboa.org

The Salisbury Chamber Chorus will perform Simon McEnery's 'The Resurrection', commissioned by David and Anne Cooke and with words by Jeremy Davies, on 13th and 14th June at St Thomas' Church. Further information via <https://www.salisburychamberchorus.org/>

Salisbury Cathedral School is delighted to invite former pupils, former parents, friends of the school and past members of Jazbytes to our Annual Alumni Reunion and a special celebration marking 20 years of Jazbytes, on Sunday 14th June from 11.00 to 15.30. If you would like to attend, please contact Jojo Orange at orange.j@salisburycathedralschool.com for further details.

An Introduction to the Letter to the Hebrews Weds 8 July, 7pm, Trinity Chapel. The writer to the Hebrews ranks among the most accomplished first-generation Christian theologians. However, modern readers can find Hebrews difficult to access, with its complex arguments and allusions to ancient Jewish culture. Kenneth Padley, whose doctorate explored readers of Hebrews in Tudor and Stuart England will consider the original message and context of this biblical book, and unpack what it might say to us about Jesus, worship, and our ultimate destiny. Tickets available via the Cathedral website.
